About the author John Paul Jackson was born July 30, 1950, in Ozark, Alabama, USA, son of John and Martha Jackson. His father was a sharecropper who grew sugar cane on a small farm. He had eight brothers and sisters. Jackson spent part of his early childhood in Pascagoula, Mississippi, USA where he lived for about four years. His parents were Episcopal. After graduating from high school, he attended southern Mississippi State University, where he met an emerging author, Dr. John T. More John Paul Jackson Dreams and Visions Study Bible The Te Vezi has a voice. When this book and John Paul Jackson's messages about the dream interpretation are combined, what a powerful, effective, Biblical tool it is! On the inside cover is a list of categories of dreams, with corresponding meanings. These correspondences are explained on pages 5-6, a page for each category. The categories are: Actual: The dictionary section which provides the daily meaning for dream symbols. John Paul Jackson insists that this section be included in a dream dictionary and tells us why. There are 44 DIFFERENT categories, as opposed to the standard 10 categories and 44 different meanings. Categories which match the 10 standard categories are listed in the appendix, not under the "actual" section. To learn more about the 10-category dream interpretation system, go to www.Pauljacksonsbooks.com. Paul Jackson's books are circulated in many countries all over the world and this is a very important aspect to see. First of all, we want to say that what really astonishes us, is the high-level subject matter of the author. We can't repeat it enough: this book is a must-have for every Christian. We advise everyone who is able to receive it on a personal level, to do it, and on the other side, not to miss it, otherwise he will regret it for his life! Before we get to the main matter, we would like to remind everyone that the Christian dream book known as "John Paul Jackson's books are circulated in many countries all over the world and this is a very important aspect to see.
