We will be much more relaxed and sane for a few weeks. I expect we'll spend most of our time behind closed doors. We are moving out. We're going to be back in my comfort zone for a while. There is no rush to do anything right now. We're taking a bit of a break after some pretty stressful weeks. Not everyone has been able to visit us or meet us because of our travel schedule, but we're so happy to be back in our own place, as I've mentioned before. We can't wait to start doing some cooking and baking, and playing in our new garden once we get it planted. The decision to go to Austria has been lingering for a couple of months. We knew it was an option in case the ones we were leaving in the States didn't work out. We waited until the last minute to make the final decision. We are really missing our friends down there already. They've been making it sound so much fun... and we know they'd be a big help once we get settled. We're moving to a rental, which is nice because I'll have my own kitchen. I plan to start cooking again, and then we can work on our garden. I'm really looking forward to having a big
