FLASH ROM FILE: Google android 8.1 x96E 2016 Nougat- based.Felix Vivas Felix Vivas (August 5, 1753 – May 4, 1827) was an American Spanish-born soldier and naturalized citizen of the United States. He was a general in the U.S. Army during the War of 1812, an early settler of Polk County, Iowa and a member of the Iowa Territorial Legislature. Early life Vivas was born in La Luz del Potrero, Province of Cádiz, Spain in 1753. Career At the outbreak of the War of 1812, Vivas, then a sergeant, was in command of a company of dragoons at the battles of New Orleans, Plattsburgh and Baltimore. A lieutenant, he was wounded at the latter engagement and promoted to the rank of captain. Vivas later served in the campaign against the Creek Indians, and in 1815 in Florida as quartermaster-general of the expedition under General Andrew Jackson to recapture Pensacola. In 1817, he became major-general of cavalry. He served during the Sioux War of 1876–77. He was founder of the town of Vivian, Iowa, which he named after his birthplace. His son, John H. Vivas, was also a c6a93da74d
