The next day, the hospital started to get more notifications of a viral illness. The head of the hospital now calls Star, and asks her to check on the new patient. Brian accompanies Star to the hospital, and they are both surprised to see that the hospital has a new wing for patients with a parainfluenza infection. These patients have to remain in the hospital for a few days to ensure that the infection doesn't come back. Some years later, Jeannie finally got a chance to meet Michael in Taiwan while he was doing post-graduate at the veterinary school. The director of the school was surprised to see Jeannie and he invited her to the campus. Michael was amazed at Jeannie and wanted to keep her company. The two soon started dating and fell in love. With Michael's help, Jeannie was able to get a job in a veterinary clinic in Taipei. This week's episode begins during a meeting between the man who sold the movie rights to He and the director of the movie. The man who sold the rights to the movie is also the president of the company that owns the rights to the original manga. The director is trying to convince the president of the company to release his movie. He promises to release It Started With a Kiss 2 (; wo wn zuj zh) as soon as they finish the remaining filming for the movie. The president only has 30 minutes to make his decision. Seventeen-year-old Mark-chan (; Lyrical Lonely Star) is a manga and anime fans. He believes that his favorite manga character Star was based on Prince Ragni. Ever since he was a kid, he gets in trouble for watching Prince and his friends in It Started with a Kiss. Recently, when he started to feel sick and his father did not pick him up from a music class, he decided to stay home and try to contact Prince. When he's about to give up, he meets an old man who gives him a black dog and tells him that he has to bring Star back to his world. Mark also meets a boy named Marco who is really Star's doppelganger and Marco's friend, Joe, who was forced to move to the United States for school, is also Star's doppelganger. He tries to convince Star to return to her dimension but Star has doubts about moving her mission.

Not only is he the same age as Yuan Xiang Qin, but he is also her identical twin brother. When she asked him to kiss her to avoid the problem of accidentally on purpose kissing, he agreed to do it. At first, he was nervous, but after observing her reaction when she is kissed, he began to enjoy it. On the day of their farewell, she brought flowers for him and waited outside his gate to hold a moment of silence with him. Jiang Zhi Shu takes YCQ to a coffee shop, where she is supposed to keep watch at a table. He knew that he must tell his mother his true identity, that he cannot stand it any longer, or she will never regain consciousness. With her eyes closed, he kisses her and tells her the truth. The title of the single was "It was in Springtime (Cyber Mix)", and sold for 120 yen. The song was used as the official theme song for Kiss and Itazura na Kiss merchandise promotion. It topped the Oricon Singles Chart for three weeks, and was certified with a gold disc for selling 100,000 copies.
