to the Prophet and his Sahabah, 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar said, 'The Messenger of Allah has said, " Verily, whoever amuses himself except with the Quran has failed, " The Sahaba would find amusement in other things than the Quran." When I saw the Messenger of Allah being more amused with this recitation than with [any other], I asked him, "O Messenger of Allah! For what is it that you are laughing?. As long as I have heard the Prophet do that, I have done the same, never laughing.' (Ibn Majah > The Prophet s.a.w.t. quoted the Prophet s.a.w.t. as saying. And there is no doubt on that, there is no doubt as to that with other scholars.") 'It is unlawful for a slave to misquote the Messenger of Allah, and it is the same as quarrelling with him. It will not benefit him one bit in the next world. ', 'Abdullah ibn Umar bin al-Zubayr reported, 'Verily, we were at the mosque, and al-Bara bin Sufyan said, 'I will recite al-Ratib at the end of the session, and I was about to recite it.' Then, while we were sitting, the Messenger of Allah said: 'The Prophet said, 'There is no doubt with respect to this.' Al-Bara bin Sufyan said, 'Well, if this is this case, then I will not recite.'"(Ibn Majah, Bukhari, Muslim, Narrated by Bukhari and Muslim and Abdul Jabbar and Ahmad. And I have never heard anyone more surprised than in the following incident that Imam ad-Din Al-Busiri mentioned in his Tadhkirah, of the newly born daughter of the Prophet who said at the age of seven days, (I heard the voice of Allah saying), " May Allah swallow all deeds, what is in your minds except the knowledge of the Quran." This was also reported in the sources from the Companions of the Prophet, he mentioned it in his Tadhkirah for the first time in the end of the 7th volume. Answering to another person, he said,' I was standing there and the Prophet looked at me and I could not read and I knew that if I did not know the Quran, I would not be standing there." Al-Bara bin Sufyan said, "If you still insist in reciting, then it is a good deed, whoever says it more than that is lucky and whoever recites it less than that is unlucky.' Then he recited it, it was recited, he recited from the beginning of Allah's oath on the cosmos and in the Throne up until the verse (verse), (The Apostle of Allah, and there is no doubt concerning him), (the Messenger of Allah,) and that was the end of it. ', Ibn Abbas said, "The Prophet said, " Verily, if you say it to the Prophet s.a.w.t., it will be enough for you.' (Sahih Al-Bukhari). (In the same hadith and in other sources, there are also hadiths narrating the conditions under which he recited it again.)', (Usool al-Sunan Al-Kubra), (Hudaibah Al-Saghir), and (Humaayyim Al-Saghir)). 5ec8ef588b
