If you are a beginner, then you may need to recite in Arabic for the first few weeks. Noorani Qaida may sound complex on first viewing, but we guarantee you will be impressed with its usability and its speed of learning. Plus, its easy to add notes and highlight words you would like to study. Once you learn the basics of recitation, you may progress to learning many variations of individual letters. At Safar Academy we use our own, unique Qidah compiled by our Development Team which is now taught in many Madrassahs across the UK. This Qidah draws from numerous other Qidahs from around the world and contains many new, innovative features based on years of collective experience gained by teaching students at Safar Academy. The Safar Qidah is prepared by qualified and experienced teachers, and has been designed for all levels of beginners, students and teachers. All of the above-mentioned elements, though applied individually, still makes this Qidah different. This has also been taken into consideration in its structure. In addition to the comprehensive guidance and explanation of the complex Quranic vocabulary, the Qidah is an introduction to all aspects of the Islamic faith. In addition to this, the Safar Qidah ensures that the reader gets a clear idea about the basic principles of Islam and understand the solid structure of the religion. The Complete Qidah has been prepared taking into account the fact that Muslim children have to learn about the basic principles of Islam. The Safar Qidah has been designed for use in every Muslim home by the family itself. It includes all the important Islamic issues which should be discussed with children at their age levels, and make children understand the religion properly and feel attached to it.

Therefore, it is more than just a book. It has been designed for students of all ages and levels. All of the text and lessons are written in the Arabic language. Also, the Safar Complete Qidah is split up into 13 levels in order to make it easy to teach. Once Safar Academy starts with the basic alphabet and then proceeds to the level of alphabets, then moves to the next level and repeats the same in all the remaining levels. Qaida is taught without fear and confusion of remembering the past. It will help in remaining conscious of mistakes and thus helps in avoiding such mistakes in the future. What I like about Safar Academy is that there is a simple explanation of the teachings, which is delivered in a way that is easily understandable and above all makes learning fun. It is patient-centered, meaning the whole experience is designed to be engaging for both students and instructors. Learning through playful experiences such as role play and 'hands-on' activities, as opposed to lecture, reading and answering exercises, has been proven to be an effective method. It is accompanied by many support materials that will help instructors and students enhance the teaching experience 5ec8ef588b
