October 26, 2010 â€" Hello, forum. So, I recently heard about An Improvisers OS from Wayne Krantz and heard completely opposite opinions about it. I think a lot about what's next for how we perceive sound. I want to share my thoughts and ask what you think of them. Let's start with what is sound, and what is music. I will not take into account music in the classical sense, but I will take into account how people perceive music. Music has sounds that can be expressed in numbers, such as tone and volume. They can be expressed as notes, as in classical music. 0946cee1be
