Luckily, adding a mirror to a space is fairly straightforward. Cut or tear off a piece of heavy cardboard at least as long as the mirror is wide. Make a small hole where you want the mirror to go. Then, slide the mirror in. Before adding it to your space, check the mirror for obstructions such as hooks and other fixtures that may prevent it from sliding smoothly. Instead, they can be the result of an artist handling a work after it's been dusted. Use a paper towel or cloth to remove dust from your painting.
