version downloadFalseMid-Range Budget Flies -OJasna Fly Club #36 5/23/2013 Have you ever wondered why the Sporty has always been such a success? Whether you like them or not, the top brands of "modern" RC's have always taken this aircraft and molded it into the aircraft of today. The Sporty is so versatile that it was able to evolve along with the other popular aircraft during the past decades. It has many different designs for various uses. If you want to start flying today and are on a tight budget, then the Sporty is the way to go. Now you can build your own with the latest technology. The Rockstar is a mid-range homebuilt. The results are even better than the manufacturers' products. You will enjoy flying in the Rockstar and compare it to those other top brands. THE ROCKSTAR IS A DREAM OF MODERNITY! When shopping for a mid-range homebuilt, you are going to want a product that is easy to fly and is durable enough to last. The Rockstar comes up trumps in both categories. The Rockstar is a high performance and comfortable homebuilt. It is easy to fly and has a strong and sturdy frame. It features the latest in "hobby" technology and is packed with detail. The Rockstar is designed by the best builder. The Rockstar aircraft is designed to stand the test of time and continue to set the standard of what a homebuilt should be. Key features of the Rockstar Light weight Numerous accessories Full detailed instructions Easy to fly Complete assembly Comfortable build quality Capable of carrying 2-4 people with good visibility SOLID & BOWING Like all PMDG models, the Rockstar has a solid and sturdy frame. The fuselage is made of tough but flexible tubular steel. The landing gear has a double-up design that makes the landing much easier. When building the Rockstar, be sure to take note of the specifications on the Rockstar so that you have the correct parts. AIM: Easy, fun and safe. I personally like to fly at low altitudes and take advantage of the amazing scenery that the West Coast has to offer. The Rockstar is perfect for my flying style. The Rockstar is a much smaller and lighter aircraft than its competitors. It is relatively easy to handle and fly. Flying at low altitudes is a great experience. I get to experience the wonders of the sky and the great views that nature has to offer. Budget-Friendly The Rockstar is a great starter homebuilt. This aircraft will
